Knowing Her Aim

"Now you go and cut me a switch," said mother to Tommy who had been a bad boy and deserved punishment. Tommy went and returned after some minutes.

"I couldn't find a switch, Ma," he reported, "but here's a big rock you can throw at me."

Monkey Argument

Jones and Smith were arguing about monkeys. Jones said that the monkey was the animal most resembling mankind.

Smith snorted.

LEON BLUM, elderly and rather fragile leader of the French Socialists, will soon be premier of his country, and he is going to have a hard time living up to the expectations of all the leftists, who are making a national hero of him. The other day hundreds of thousands of French reds and pinks marched behind Blum or stood cheering on the sidelines, and pictures of the leader were carried in the ranks or sold by hawkers. In the crowds. This was on the occasion of the traditional memorial ceremony in Pere Lachaise cemetery for the Marxist martyrs of the Paris Commune in 1871.

Leon Blum

M. Blum is said to be watching closely his publicity in the United States since his speech in which he intimated a desire to agree with Washington on the elimination of war debt discussions. He is hoping to be able to obtain loans from New York bankers. The Johnson law is naturally an insurmountable obstacle to France's obtaining any kind of credit in America, but as the Paris Midi pointed out Blum went out of his way to declare that France has not forgotten the war debt and fully expects to bring it up for discussion some time in the future.

ON JUNE 15 the bonus baby bonds will be mailed to 45,000 post offices from Washington and from the seven federal reserve centers. Final plans for delivering the bonds to the veterans were announced by Postmaster General Farley, who predicted that payment on a great majority of them would be made within one week.

Mail carriers have been given instructions to "go out of their way wherever necessary with a view to effecting delivery," Farley said. The bond packets must be delivered to the veteran in person, and not to another person or firm at the veteran's address.

"It is impossible to locate the veteran to whom the bonds are addressed," Farley continued, "they will be held for 20 days at the post office of destination before being returned to the respective federal reserve centers and thence to the Treasury department."

The bonds will be in $50 denominations with accompanying checks to cover the odd amounts. To collect cash, the veteran must have his bonds certified through his local post office.

Post offices in 241 cities have been designated as paying centers for their districts, and 59 large city offices have been empowered to pay on bonds issued outside their own districts.

ITALIANS celebrated the anniversary of their country's entrance into the World war with imposing ceremonies that included the promotion of more than half a million boys and girls in the organizations of young Fascists. Premier Mussolini presided over the "graduation," and after reviewing a great military parade, the Duce told the shouting crowds:

"The spectacle of the force of youth exhibited this morning on the anniversary of our intervention in the World war, the first phase of the Fascist revolution, has been magnificent and a warning at the same time. We are preparing the young armies of tomorrow for defense of the empire. Since they are animated by the Fascist spirit they will be invincible. This is the law of the revolution. This is the supreme will of the whole Italian people."

While his conqueror was thus engaged, Haile Selassie, deposed emperor of Ethiopia, was embarking at Haifa, Palestine, for England on the British destroyer Capetown. Two sons and a daughter accompanied him, but former Empress Menen remained at Jerusalem. The exiled monarch, after a visit in England, intends to go to Paris, hoping to soften French resistance to Italy in the League of Nations. He may succeed in this, for the incoming Socialist regime in France will endeavor to restore the league's prestige.

THE office of transportation co-ordinator, held by Joseph B. Eastman, is due to expire on June 16, but Senator Wheeler of Montana had ready for introduction a resolution extending it for two years, and President Roosevelt was on record as approving some of its activities.

It was reported in Washington that railway management and labor, both of which have opposed some of Eastman's doings in the past, might unite in an effort to block extension of the office, but Eastman said he had heard "nothing substantial" on that line.

Eastman announced last February he would exercise his powers to compel railroads in 11 cities to carry out terminal unifications and economy and efficiency moves. He withheld the orders at the suggestion of President Roosevelt, however, to permit rail management and labor to agree on some plan of protection for employees thrown out of work in such consolidations.

CONVERSATIONS between Great Britain and Russia now going on in London will have to do only with naval armaments in European waters, for the Soviet government has announced that it cannot consider limitation of its far eastern fleet while there is no similar agreement binding Japan.

Speaking for the government, Karl Radek said in the newspaper Izvestia that the Soviet union has been striving to conclude a separate agreement with Japan, but thus far the efforts have been fruitless.

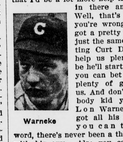
Grimm Full o' Hope Though 1936 Pennant Chase Is Plenty Tough

CHARLEY GRIMM—"What's that? No, I'm not thinking about becoming a pitcher just because I've got this big yellow-finger mitt on and because you've seen me warming up for ten minutes. I'm merely breaking it in for Larry French, who's got a lot of other things on his mind now besides new gloves, and asked me to do it for him. It's all in the day's work for a manager. Even when you're with the league champions, you've got to help out wherever you can, and— What's that?

"You think from what you've seen that I'd be a lot more help if I did go in there and pitch? Well, that's where you're wrong. We've got a pretty fair staff just the same and getting Curt Davis will help us plenty. Maybe he'll start slow, but you can bet he'll win plenty of games for us. And don't let anybody kid you about Lon Warneke. He's got all his stuff and you can take my word, there's never been a thing wrong with his arm. Also you can believe some more of the same about Bill Lee. I'm telling you that we'll be going along smoothly before long, and—



Warneke

"Sure, I know Galan and Hack are not hitting as good as they did this time last year. But they're both fellows who're really good hitters and you can't keep them down. They're likely to snap out of it any day now and keep on going. Besides, we're getting some pretty fair power in there anyhow, aren't we? Sure, we are. Look at Billy Herman. He's slapped seventeen doubles so far and you now know that's the kind of smart batting that wins ball games, and—

That Kid Cavaretta Is Okay at First Base

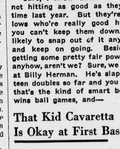
"How about first base? Well, what about it yourself? That young Cavaretta is coming along okay. He's fielding pretty and he's picked up plenty up there at the plate. So—

"Yeah, maybe I could go out there because I honestly am feeling swell. But I tried it twice this spring and each time that ligament slipped in my back. So, don't it better for me to be ready if necessary, and meanwhile give a kid who's going so well a hand, and— Don't believe a word of it. The fellow who started that swelled head yarn was dreaming.

"The rest of the race? It's going to be closer than it's been for years with those second-division boys giving the rest of us plenty to worry about. Pittsburgh's got all the power in the world and if those Pirates just had another good pitcher it might be that nobody could stop them.

"Brooklyn's no soft touch either. If they had one fence buster they'd be blamed hard to beat. Almost all of the guys in the race think they've got such a good chance that they just hate to give strength to get strength in some other spot and—Okay, go on over and interview Terry. I've got to get some hitting practice anyhow."

Terry Needs a Pitcher but Where's the Trade?



J. B. Eastman

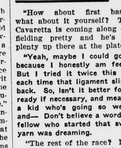
Bill Terry—"How do I know how long my leg's going to let me stay in there? It swells up big and so sore at night that it's pretty tough sleeping and what's worse there doesn't seem to be anything anybody can do for it. But I'll stick in there just as long as I can.

"Bartell? Don't believe everything you read. He's had a charley-horse in his leg and thanks partially slowed him some, but he's coming along all right.

"Frisch? Certainly I'd make one. I'm not saying we haven't looked bad a few times in the last couple of weeks, but we've got a pretty fair ball club. Give us another pitcher to go along with what we have and—

"Why don't I get one then? Say, why don't you go on over there and interview Grimm. What? Okay, you can stay then, but don't ask any more questions like that. Haven't you ever met any other managers in this league? Don't you know that if you were to give up your right eye and a few other knickknacks such as that they'd probably still be asking how you expected that to—

"What? You're right. It's a tough race. Maybe it won't be decided until three or four clubs are at the wire, which would suit us swell the way we're keeping close up now. Maybe the breaks will decide it. Anyhow, there's no soft spots.



Tilden

Bill Tilden Fading as Box Office Magnet

A sports idol seems to be fading at last. Although the Lott-Stoefen-Vines unit continues to do very well at the box office, Pro Tennis Promoter Bill O'Brien is losing money on his Bill Tilden troupe. . . . Tickets for the Louis-Schmeling affair cost four cents each. That is, Mike Jacobs pays $40 a thousand for the cardboards and the printing on them. This, incidentally, is a high-class job, since fight dockets ordinarily are prepared for $6 a thousand. . . . The Evans brothers, who run the Loch Sheldrake resort where Jim Braddock trained to win his world championship, continue to bet that the lack of their spot will hold good when the title finally is defended. . . . Nasty mens say that the real head of the opposition wrestling trust is Billy Sandow.

Mike Jacobs, the sports impresario who probably knows more about Broadway than any living man, continues an old-fashioned gag under his modish haberdashery. He wears long underwear the year around. . . . There are big-time players who will bet you that the average annual salary of the Athletics is less than $2,000 a year although the average among other clubs is double that amount. . . . The Children's Aid Society Sandlot league, which provided recreation for 3,008 baseball playing youngsters last year, is continuing the good work this summer with the able assistance of Col. Jacob Ruppert. . . . Willie Herkert, secretary of the German-American Football association, once starred with the Brooklyn Wanderers and was a member of the G. A. F. team which toured Germany in 1930. . . . Left-handed golfers no longer are bound by the belief that no southpaw can succeed at the game.

Racetrack touts are gents who keep up with the times. In states where there are laws against the hopping of horses they start work on a prospect by flashing a badge and hinting that they are narcotic agents. The rest of the sales talk is to the effect that they have spotted several gee-gees which are hopheads and are letting them run so as to gather conclusive evidence against the owners. Thereupon three out of five prospects fall in with the idea of getting down a sizable bet on his sure thing. . . . If you have been wondering where wrestlers come from take a look at Oklahoma. Mat performers from that state won 18 of the 23 amateur and collegiate titles, including six of the seven Olympic team spots this year.

The Giants might like to know that several Western opponents hint they favor the going gets tough. The athletes say that when a Dean or a Warneke rifling the ball across the Polo Grounds performers seem all too anxious to get away from the plate as quickly as possible, so they (Joe Moore is excluded by the scandalmongers) hit feebly at bad balls instead of waiting out the speed hurlers. . . . Bookmakers are happy to discover that even the parimutuel machines have a bit of larceny in them and that a totalizator once watched in England. This was a movable device that was carted from track to track and one day it left before the races were over.

TIPS ON TURF TERMS:

BILL DALY—A horse which takes the track and is never headed. Hardly ever a favorite.

SHORT—A horse (sometimes a player) which tails off after making most of the gate—also favorite players all wind up short.

GUMBO—When the track's muddy.

PREAKNESS Pickings:

Bold Venture joined an illustrious company of ponies including Sir Barton, Gallant Fox, Burgoo King and Omaha that have won both the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness. Twenty Grand and Cavalcade, Derby winners, were second when they tried their luck at the Preakness.

Only two fillies have reached the winners' circle. They were Rhine Maiden in 1915 and Nellie Morse in 1924. . . . Tom Healey has been the most successful of the modern trainers in the $25,000 classic. He saddled four winners, Vigil, Pillory, Display and Dr. Freeland. The combination of Owner G. L. Lorillard and Trainer R. W. Walden was tops among the ancients. They had all five winners from 1878 to 1882. Walden also was the winning trainer in 1875 and was both owner and trainer of Refund, who romped home in front in 1888. . . .

Just to show that things were on the up and up in those days a horse named Melcher finished second in a field of two in 1884.

Not in the Box Score:

There is an unwritten baseball law that there shall be no "throwing" at night. The lights and shadows make it so difficult for a batter to dodge that even the hardest-hearted pitchers prefer to aim at the outside corners rather than be charged with manslaughter. . . . Baltazar Sanchis, recognized in Europe as the world's bantamweight champion, says he started boxing because he didn't want to go to work. . . . The Mesuels, Irish and Bob, are playing semi-pro baseball in Los Angeles. . . . Pa Stribling now peddles automobiles in Hattiesburg, Miss. . . . Elmer Layden, the Notre Dame football mentor, is flooding the mails with circulars advertising his forthcoming Olympic tour. . . . Jack Kearns now operates a tavern on Randolph street in Chicago. . . . Vaughan Williams, long one of the most capable soccer referees, now is vice president of the Brooklhatan A. C.

First Coins Dated 700 B. C.; Gold, Silver Mixture Used

The world's first coins came into existence in Lydia, Asia Minor, about 700 B. C., when a metal called electrum, a natural mixture of gold and silver, was used.

Two of the most interesting coins in the history of American money are the "Pine Tree" shilling, a silver piece minted in Boston in 1652, and the Spanish-American silver coins known as "pieces of eight."

No Need to Suffer "Morning Sickness"

"Morning sickness"—is caused by an acid condition. To avoid it, acid must be offset by alkalis—such as magnesia.

Why Physicians Recommend Milnesia Wafers

These mint-flavored, candy-like wafers are pure milk of magnesia in solid form—the most pleasant way to take it. Each wafer is approximately equal to a full adult dose of liquid milk of magnesia. Chewed thoroughly, then swallowed, they correct acidity in the mouth and throughout the digestive system and insure quick, complete elimination of the waste matters that cause gas, headaches, bloated feelings and a dozen other discomforts.

Milnesia Wafers come in bottles of 20 and 40, at 35c and 60c respectively, and in convenient flat four handbag containing 12 at 20c. Each wafer is approximately one adult dose of milk of magnesia. All good drug stores sell and recommend them.
